Message From Campus Chief

Dear Prospective Students, It's my pleasure to welcome you to the Bright Vision Law College, world of Legal Education. The Twenty-first century is the era for the observance of human rights, guaranteeing the rule of law, and establishing a justiciable society. Especially in the context of Nepal, the context in which the country entered into the Federalism, it has been essential for the country to produce legally trained professionals and ethical Human Resources required for the nation. I have a well-founded belief that this need of the nation shall be met out a larger extent by the competent human resources to be produced by this college. The basis of this belief is not other than the quality of education itself that this college ensures. Our management team and our teaching faculty comprise senior professors, researchers, academicians, and law practitioners.

We feel proud of our faculty members and administrative staff, who are highly motivated and dedicated to creating a congenial learning environment. At BVLC, we understand that only the environment of engaged learning based on scientific research, critical analysis, and real or innovative practices is the key to success in today's global professionalism. I would like to assure everyone that here the students find such an environment with highly experienced, motivated, and very cooperative teaching faculties and friendly administrative staff.

What BVLC Stands For?

BVLC stands for Bright Vision Law College affiliated to Purwanchal University, established in 2010, the first Law College outside Kathmandu Valley in Nepal, has been imparting qualitative law education at an affordable cost through its programs offered:

- B.A.L.L.B.(5 years)
- L.L.M.(2 years)

Significance of Legal Education

A maxim in Latin, - "Ignorantia legis neminem excusat," means "Ignorance of Law doesnot excuse" - truly unfolds the significance of legal education and a must to get acknowledged.

Law doesn't only mean the legal process to control crime and criminals but it is rather good to be defined as its relevancy to everyone, everywhere, and almost every situation. Consequently, it is everyone should know, to be careful not to break and more than that, it is to know what laws cause problems in the society and should be changed according to need and demand of time.

Law has fundamental foundation of framing a society how it operates, regulates and importantly every aspect of our social lives. It is, therefore, direct interest of all social beings. A society is measured good or bad in terms of quality of law it has valued. Indeed, it is the responsibility of the law graduates to lead the society dynamically as it requires to the higher achievements. Thus, legal education opens up avenues for YOU to become a social worker, a leader of the society, and a social engineer to drive up the society as required by time and people.

Above of all, legal education leads myriad of careers of job opportunities in almost every sector it needs in the future. Law graduates are always open to all the professions, yet they tend to become a lawyer after studying Law. Just take a quick glance to know how your law degree or your adequate knowledge of law equips you to pursue your career in an unbelievably wide range of contexts in BVLC.

Essence of Legal Education in Nepal

- To replace the traditional and impractical legal education that has been causing a decline of new generation for the interest of law by modern practical legal education system coping up with new techniques of AI technology
- To compete with professionals from other countries by producing quality law professionals in the increase of the foreign investment, arrival of multinational corporations, rapid mobility of peace made from the entry of Nepal into WTO,
- To meet an alarmingly high demand of human resources esp. in Law for both the government and private sectors in the country.
- To enhance more scopes for more offers of employment as system of country has turned into decentralized and federal structures of the state and such numerous opportunities even in National and International Organizations

On the one hand, law colleges in Nepal are outnumbered compared to seekers of legal education, and on the other only very few students can afford the abroad study. Moreover, the students, the trained or educated in other countries, have to face a practical difficulty in accommodating to the different judicial systems of this country. Therefore, BVLC has come up with Law faculty for this mission to satisfy the enrolled upcoming Law graduates in Nepal.
